Community Information Hemet

HEMET

Hemet is a city located in the San Jacinto Valley in Riverside County, California. It covers a total area of 27.1 square miles, about half of the valley, which it shares with the neighboring city of San Jacinto. In 2009 the city's population was estimated to be 74,361 according to the California Department of Finance. Hemet was founded in 1887, predating the formation of Riverside County, and was incorporated on January 20, 1910.

Parks

The City of Hemet has again been named a Tree City USA by the National Arbor Day Foundation to honor its commitment to its community forest. It is the 20th year that Hemet has received this national recognition! Click here to find out more about this national honor!

When a group of 25 or more people wish to use one of the parks for a picnic, wedding, party, reunion, etc., a Park Use Request should be filled out and brought to the City of Hemet offices. The City maintains a calendar for the park usages at the parks listed below. If time allows, the requests are placed on the Park Commission agenda for approval. The Park Commission meets the last Monday of every month at 4:00p.m. in the City Council Chambers.

The City Hall address is 445 East Florida Avenue (at the corner of Buena Vista St.). To check on the Park calendar, call (951) 765-2360.

All developed parks are open daily between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. Simpson Park is open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the Summer and 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in Winter.

Organized recreational activities such as softball, tennis tournaments etc., are provided to the community by the Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District which is a separate entity from the City. Their offices are located at 901 West Esplanade Avenue in the City of San Jacinto, telephone number 654-1505.

Local Attractions

Diamond Valley Lake & Visitor Center: First and foremost, Diamond Valley Lake is a lifeline for Southern California in times of drought. The lake holds enough water to meet the area's emergency and drought needs for six months and is an important component in Metropolitan's plan to provide a reliable supply of water to the 18 million people in Southern California who count on us.

Diamond Valley Lake is embarking on a substantial trail system that will allow visitors to hike and ride through the hill surrounding the reservoir. The first set of trails are along the north hills overlooking the lake, and another circumnavigates the lake.

Other amenities at the east dam area, including Metropolitan's partnership with the Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District to develop a positive recreational environment. This includes a swimming pool, soccer and other fields and more. (800) 308-6767.

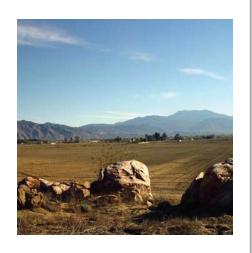

The Clayton Record Jr. Viewpoint is located off of Winchester and Construction roads. Hours are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday. For more information please call (800) 308-6767.
