Santa Ana

SANTA ANA

Santa Ana is truly a great place in which to live, work and play. It is a place for arts and culture, and home to never-before-seen exhibits, world-acclaimed artists, attractions, and classic architecture. It is a place for business, the world headquarters for global players, the site of business centers serving southern California, and the small business capital of Orange County.

Santa Ana is known for its strong work ethic and for the pride of its neighborhoods. Santa Ana is a place with soul. This is where diversity brings people together, combining individual strengths to achieve a community in balance with economic vitality and livability.

The welcome mat is always out in Santa Ana. Our citizens have been sharing our city with friends, family and visitors for over one hundred years. This website is your guide to finding the best products and services, community connections, and unique local attractions. Santa Ana has the businesses, schools and entertainment to delight even the most discriminating consumer. If you have business in Santa Ana, or if you're here visiting, these pages will guide you to the services you need. In an urban center, you expect to find what you need and want. It's all here in Santa Ana.

Live and Work

Livability is the watchword of pride for 63 active associations representing neighborhoods with homes that span the past 115 years! As a result, people know their neighbors and take an active role in issues that improve their quality of life. In Santa Ana, "over the back yard fence" and "town hall" forms of networking ensure that residents' voices are often heard all the way to City Hall. They truly make a difference in the decision-making process. Throughout the year, you'll experience a host of neighborhood events and activities, including home tours, garden shows, concerts, and art exhibits, all in the context of neighborhood fun and pride.

Santa Ana Zoo

The Santa Ana Zoo at Prentice Park is the only zoo accredited by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums in Orange County and features a unique collection of Neotropical animals from Central and South America. The zoo's animal collection of more than 250 animals is notable for its diversity of monkeys and tropical birds but also features rare domestic breeds in the 2-acre Crean Family Farm.

It is conveniently located at 1801 E. Chestnut Ave. in Santa Ana adjacent to the Interstate 5 freeway, and is very affordable: $10.00 for adults; $7.00 for children 3 to 12, and seniors; and free for children under 3.

The zoo's lushly landscaped 20 acres are a quiet urban oasis especially suited for families with small children. The zoo also offers a wide range of education programs, special events, birthday party facilities, full food service, gift shop, a playground, a new carrousel featuring endangered animals, and the Zoofari Express train ride.
